ADM NS OPS Feb 5 Read out

Communications

- Daily DMOC, ADM NS OPS, and Ministerial Briefings continue, with a potential SSE CC to meet this weekend.
- Misinformation continues to be widespread.

- On the international side, there seems to be a large financial and social media influence from the United States, as well as potentially other less friendly countries. This is space where the federal government could play in on.

Protection of Officials

- Nothing new to add today.

Peaceful Event

- RCMP has two main lines of effort in the national security space: 1) IMVE and 2) foreign interference.
- 500 trucks are expected to come to Ottawa today.
- OPS has not released its operations plan (expected today), but significant police resources, including RCMP, OPP and other ON municipal forces are with OPS now to leverage.
- Coutts is continuing, but there is some slow movement across the border.
- The threat level remains the same.
- Planned marine demonstrations have shifted to land based solidarity protests, likely due to inclement weather.
- $1M released by GoFundMe is on hold, as federal financial institutions are also live to the issue.
- Give Send Go is the new preferred donation site – like GoFundMe, it is US based, however the site also has links to Proud Boys and the January 6 Capitol Hill insurrection.
- It will be very challenging for the CAF if it is called upon for towing capacity, as its current capacity would damage vehicles and take a lot of man hours.

Solicitor-Client Priv.

IMVE

- Given the spread of the demonstration nationwide, monitoring of targets has also moved beyond Ottawa.
- No change to the overall threat picture

s.38

Strategic Approach

- DMs discussed the federal strategic approach to address the ongoing situation, both within the city of Ottawa, as well as the spread across communities throughout Canada.
- This included agreement that an FPT table should be convened imminently, though further discussion is needed on whether a law enforcement or emergency management table makes more sense, as well as whether municipal participation should be sought (Big City caucus?).

Thanks!

s.38

ADM NS OPS February 3, 2022

Communications

- Daily DMOC, ADM NS OPS, and Ministerial Briefings continue, with Cabinet Committee of Safety, Security and Emergencies potentially meeting today or later this week
- Communications teams are following Chief Sloly's comments closely.

Protection of Officials

- Nothing new to add today.

Peaceful Event

- NCC has reached out to RCMP for assistance in Confederation Park and Rideau Hall
- RCMP continues to field requests for support from OPS (ongoing)
- Social media around the Mariners for Freedom and/or Freedom Boat Parades has been increased, including chatter of shutting down Halifax Harbour. The first parade is being called on for tomorrow, though it appears to call on boaters to decorate their boats in solidarity rather than blocking ports. Canadian Coast Guard is elevating readiness but notes the risk seem relatively low at this point.
- There is one lane of traffic open in each direction at the Coutts, Alberta border crossing, and CBSA is seeing increased activity in Quebec and BC.
- RCMP and Service looking into OPS comments on money.

IMVE

- s.38
- The RCMP has been fielding questions related to the observation of flags connected to listed terrorist entities. While the RCMP looks into these issues, flying a flag is not illegal. The profits from the sale as well as whether the flag is being used for recruitment could be subject to investigation.
- The Service reported on the status of some people of interest.
- Some people known to authorities in this space could use these demonstrations as an opportunity to talk to people and recruit.

Hi Mike,

Below is the summary of this afternoon's call on the demonstrations.

Thanks,
s.38

ADM NS OPS February 2, 2022

Communications

- Daily DMOC, ADM NS OPS, and Ministerial Briefings to continue.
- CBSA: some conversations DM-DM with AB.
- SECOPS has a meeting today with Public Safety and TBS s.38
- s.38
- As decisions around public communications continue to evolve, consideration may need to be given to legitimizing the protest and its actions.

Protection of Officials

- Nothing new to add today.

Peaceful Event

- Coutts: RCMP enforcement action had undesirable result yesterday and conversations continue on next steps.
 - o Travelers are adjusting their routes out to nearby POEs, and there are some concerns that the convoy will move to these sites.
- A new protest group: Mariners for Freedom has emerged. Communications from PCO working with Public Safety and Transport Canada to get a beat on the protest.
- Trucking convoy is inspiring methodology internationally.
- Permit for counter-protest has not been issued by City of Ottawa.
- Premier of QC and Mayor of Quebec City are taking a different approach than the City of Ottawa and will not allow big trucks into downtown core.
- Policing responsibilities and decisions continue to be provincial jurisdiction in both Ottawa and Alberta (RCMP is police of jurisdiction through contract policing agreement). Federal RCMP can provide assistance to decisions that are made, but likely plays a smaller role in shaping those decisions.

IMVE

- Nothing new to add today.

Outcome from DMOC

- ADMs discussed at length the tasking out of DMOC to consider options and potential federal levers to manage the situation to resolution.

s.38

ADM NS OPS February 1, 2022

Communications

- DMOC & and ADM NS OPS will meeting daily to discuss the demonstrations.
- Daily Ministerial briefings will also continue.

Protection of Officials

- RCMP Protective Services continue to assist MPs onto and off of the Hill.
- The impact on downtown operations of government departments has tested BCPS.
- s.38

Peaceful Event

- Activities in Ottawa have begun abating, but are expected to ramp up into the weekend.
- ADMs were challenged to begin thinking about the role of the federal family in assisting on next steps.
- The protest at Coutts, AB continue to be concerning. The northbound highway remains blocked from the POE. Protesters are showing signs of becoming increasingly hardened.
 - o CBSA continues to work with local RCMP on next steps, though protesters have not complied with agreed upon next steps.
 - o Weather across the prairies has decreased cross border traffic.

Subject: RE: ADM NS OPS Read Out - JAN 31

Hi Mike,

Apologies on the delay on this. Below is the readout from today's NSOPS.

Thanks!

s.38

ADM NS OPS January 31

Communications

- There will be an ad hoc DMOC today.
- It may be useful for DMs to brief their Ministers, rather than a joint briefing.
- s.38
- s.38
 - o Some departments are starting to allow people into the office, but these locations are not within the DT core

Protection of Officials

- Protective services have been assisting MPs onto Hill. Expecting around 100 today; so far 25-30 officials on site.
- VIP Operations were temporarily paused this morning due to safety incidents, but have since resumed.
- Concerns remain on staff coming into downtown offices.

Peaceful Event

- Key question remain: how does this end and who is left (e.g., numbers may be lower, but what is threat nature of remaining individuals).
- There is no finite timeline for when a lawful protest must ends - long as it remains lawful, it may continue.
 - o Violence will require a public order response. OPS has brought in additional support teams.
 - o Removal of vehicles and/or protesters is responsibility of OPS.
- Over the weekend there were several incidents downtown that were managed by OPS (pallets, "nudging/ramming" OPS car).
- Security agencies are monitoring the call to "Storm the Hill" which has a countdown.
- There continues to be discussions around flags as several (i.e., Confederate, Nazi, III%, Antifa) have been spotted at the protest.
- RCMP's focus remains on public safety.
- A number of incursions on the no-fly zone in Ottawa have been reported to NAV Canada and TC (drones and private planes). TC is in the info gathering phase, which will continue into investigation phase.
 - o None appear overly threatening, however, bubble was intruded on several times.
- CBSA: Number events at Ports of Entry (POEs) over the weekend, but reduced yesterday.
 - o Most pernicious site remains Coutts, AB where the northbound highway remains blocked from the POE.
 - o People coming from US became stuck and CBSA worked with partners to facilitate departure of people trying to leave through alternate route.
 - o CBSA is working with RCMP on next steps.
 - o Protest may move to Carway, as it is where some have been rerouted.
 - o There are signals that the organizers of the protest are becoming hardened (e.g., they are allowing individuals to travel to city, but trucks are not allowed to leave)
 - o Situation not abating.

- s.38
- s.38
 - o This is an increase in persons, but not an increase in threat matrix.
- RCMP and CSIS continue to monitor and collaborate with regards to IMVE activity.
- No change in terms of specific threat activity.

Other

s.39

- ADMs may wish to begin considering gaps in authority and policy in this area, as online hate remains troubling space.

ADM NS OPS Jan 30

Communications

- Ministers are appreciative of daily briefings – there is continued interest in volume/numbers and any change to threat assessment.
- Message from OCHRO & CSOs coming shortly on WFH posture for government employees.

Protection of Officials

- SAA and PPS are actively working on logistics for Monday morning Parliament sitting, including potential in-person.
 - o INTERSECT remains engaged in these discussions

Peaceful Event

- There are reports of additional convoys coming.
 - o This second wave may be longer, however is no fidelity on this information at this time, and is for situational awareness only.
- Expecting significant presence of protesters tomorrow, and potentially through the beginning of this week. From a planning perspective, RCMP is planning for at least a week.
- Coutts, AB Port of Entry has over 1,000 people protesting and North and South-bound highway traffic is essentially blocked.
 - o The US has put up a checkpoint and is directing to other POEs, however, this is challenging.
 - o CBSA is working with the RCMP for transit of non-commercial vehicles, as well as logistics of transporting CBSA staff in and out of area.
 - o The organizers of the protest have noted they don't have control over the group blocking highway. Discussions are ongoing, but blockade may last longer.
 - o ADMs noted it would be helpful to get data on this closure and slowdown, particularly the impact on incoming trucks.

- There were a number of protests across Ports of Entry yesterday, though, with the exception of Coutts, most were under 100 people.
- TC, NAV Canada and the RCMP are actively investigating the helicopter and a number of drones seen flying around Ottawa. OPS and RCMP have delegated authority to issue penalties.

IMVE

- No update today

Hi Mike,
Below is the read out of this afternoon's call.

ADM NS OPS January 29, 2022

Communications

- Internally, there has been good information flow so far.
- s.38

Protection of Officials

- RCMP Ministerial Liaison team is reaching out to Ministers offices/CoS/Driver cadre today to seek input on the schedule of arrivals to ensure safe arrivals (SAA involved as well).
- s.38

Peaceful Event

- Numbers remain difficult to predict. As of now, RCMP predicts approximately 2,500-3000 trucks (6,000 people). RCMP and PoJ surveillance teams continue to collate numbers.
- The tone to staff in the area includes somewhat abusive language, but by and large communication has been good with organizers.
- Assessment continues to be that the organizers are committed to peaceful event, but need to be conscious of others operating on margins.
- Three Ports of Entry have protest activity:

- o Biggest is Emerson MB (about 100 vehicles);
- o Approximately 20 vehicles in Carway AB are parked at Duty Free;
- o Woodstock NB has had a 5 cars show up.
- o CBSA has not seen much protest related cross border movement.
- Transport Canada will be issuing a NOTAM to increase No-Fly zone around Parliamentary precinct.
 - o Likely to be worked out within next hour between conversations between RCMP & TC.

- Continued monitoring of persons of interest in this space.
- Organizations continue to see violent rhetoric online against the PM.
- s.38
- ITAC continues to monitor in case threat level needs to change.

Hi Mike,
Below is a quick readout of the meeting today.
Thanks,

s.38

ADM NS OPS JAN 28

Communications

- Distribution lists need to be clear and updated regularly
- s.39
 - o Concerns on size, scope, numbers
 - o Fidelity on propensity to mobilize to violence.
 - o IMVE issues are becoming better understood, but a lot of anxiety persists.
- Discussions continue on who is best placed as Ministerial lead
- DMOC yesterday focused entirely on convoy; Deputies have also briefed Clerk
- GOC: Sending out key point 2x/day until at least Monday.
- PCO EP: There continues to be interest in calendar of events, if and when it becomes available; SSE is also ready and able to meet as needed.
- SECOPS: Continuing to update CSOs and messaging staff. Departments are expected to report changes in security posture into CMC, who will report up if items of interest.
 - o CSOs should be fully briefing Deputies on both Convoy and Ministerial Security, as well as if Business Continuity Plans are being activated
- PCO Comms: There is a communications coordination group that has developed a package of shared messaging that's been shared with PMO.

Protection of Officials

- Discussions continue with Government House Leader and Opposition on what happens on Monday for Parliament.

Peaceful Event

- Trucks have begun to appear downtown.
- Senior Officials and Ministers continue to stress the importance of being prepared and hoping to stave off a major incident.
- RCMP: numbers continue to be fluid, if groups amalgamate at pre-arranged meeting points, law enforcement will have greater fidelity on numbers. There are a number of resources being stood up (incl RCMP bringing in others).
- SAA is having a meeting with Chiefs of Staff of Ministers & Leaders of Official Parties at 4 or 430 today, to give situational awareness and reiterate SAA notice (what to do if event at residence). DMs of these Departments can also be given a heads up this meeting is occurring.
- CBSA: Large volume of trucks entering for the purpose of protest not being seen at POE, but CBSA is tracking NB and AB for weekend activity.
- PS: Provincial counterparts have been reaching out as there may be related protests or demonstrations in across the country.
- TC: With respect to drones, police services in Ottawa know the rules around what can be flown particularly around Parliament Hill and TC has communicated what to do if there is an intrusion.

IMVE

- CSIS: No substantive changes since yesterday. Very active posture, tracking small number of people of concern (targets). Linked up with PoJ & RCMP. Like others, seeing social media contents s.38
- ITAC: Not much more to add. Unclassified TA was published and is available for First Responders.
- Democratic Institutions has relationships with s.38 and can inform if material is being taken down (or needs to be)

Other

- GoFundMe continues to attract attention as there are reports of foreign donations.
- NB: GoFundMe is associated with the organized side of the protest. Organizers have been cooperating with law enforcement. The RCMP does not investigate the funding of lawful protests.

Jan 27 ADM NS OPS Read Out

Communications

- PCO Emergency Preparedness will continue to be responsible for communications to Minister Blair's Office and PMO.
- GOC will continue collating key points from departments with respect to the Convoy.
- ADMs expressed a desire to receive the GOC points in advance of DMOC to share with their respective DMs, if possible.
- PCO SECOPS is sending a message to all CSOs, via the GOC, to increase vigilance and posture for downtown departments.
 - o If a Department's security level changes they are to report the change through PCO CMC; national security concerns should be reported through the RCMP.

Protection of Officials

- Protection for the Senate is done primarily by PPS.
 - o There are no scheduled meetings of the Senate next week, and it remains in a work-from-home posture
- s.38
- PCO is working on alternate sites for senior level officials' and/or Ministers' meetings next week, if necessary.
- The Cyber Centre noted it can take down spoofing accounts of Ministers or Government institutions.

Peaceful Event

- Ottawa Police Service continues to discuss logistics with convoy organizers.
- Best estimates on numbers at this time are 2,700 trucks and less than 7,000 people, however these numbers are fluid and subject to change.
- ITAC will be distributing an unclassified report on the threat assessment to partners shortly.
- CBSA continues to monitor related activities over the weekend at various Ports of Entry.
- IRCC's BCP is in place to support over the weekend, as needed.
- DND/CAF noted that prior to any CAF activation, it will be important to know what gaps exist in law enforcement capabilities.
- ADMs recognized that opportunistic violence cannot be ruled out.

ADM NS OPS Read Out

COMMUNICATIONS

Media

- Public communications will take its cues from the Prime Minister, emphasizing the lawful nature of protest, but importance on being prepared.

Internal:

- GOC continues to raise situational awareness with CSOs.
 - o Effective now, RCMP will provide protective intelligence into the GOC.
- PCO EP will roll up GOC/ADM NS OPS debriefs into a nightly common operating picture for Ministers of SSE, Minister of IGA, and their respective offices, as well as PMO.
- PCO will also provide nightly updates to Minister Blair's Office and PMO (18:30)
- ADM NS OPS will convene daily via secure means to discuss any potential threat activity. Should a critical event occur after hours, the Secretariat will advise the Chairs and the group will convene at the first available opportunity.
- ADMs agreed on the importance of consistency in briefings to various Ministers.

Public/Businesses

- At this time the Ottawa Police Service is not issuing a warning to residents and businesses.

Employees

- Departments should consult their Business Continuity Plans for employees normally required to be present downtown (e.g., 24/7 ops centres)

SECURITY OF OFFICIALS

- SAA has sent an Alert to all MPs in the NCR as a "security refresh" on what to do if protesters show up at residence/constituent offices, and security posture.
- Transport updated that Minister Alghabra will be in Ottawa on Sunday for the Supply Chain Summit.
- Officials are working on contingencies on how MPs can attend Parliament next week, should the protests be prolonged.

PEACEFUL EVENT

Roles and Responsibilities

- Ottawa Police Service has primary jurisdiction within Ottawa on maintaining public order.
- SAA/PPS are primary jurisdiction over parliamentary precinct and Senate.
- RCMP is responsible for protections and physical threats against Ministers.
- INTERSECT is a longstanding program/entity and includes members from OPP, RCMP, OPS, Gatineau Police, PPS and can be used for planning and information exchange.
 - o INTERSECT is meeting daily on tactical decisions such as deployments and posture.
- As a peaceful event, DND/CAF does not expect to be engaged at this time. Should CAF presence be required, this would go through the RFA process, upon agreement of the Minister of National Defence and Public Safety

Posture

- RCMP monitoring thus far indicates that where convoy has slowed and created some public safety risks (e.g, inclement weather), when asked to move on there has been immediate compliance.
 - o National Capital Region Command Center has been stood up and provides Incident Commanders; planning is ongoing and based on lessons learned from Capitol Hill.
 - o RCMP also has Public Order Teams that are low visibility tactical troops that supplement OPS, PPS and Protective Policing.
- ADMs committed to return to the Committee with specifics on what will trigger the event from peaceful event to one requiring law enforcement action.

IMVE

- CSIS updated that it is not tracking the convoy but is watching for threat elements, including its target base. CSIS will advise police should there be an indication of an organized attack.
- ITAC has prepared a threat assessment that has been sent on the high side. They are working on an unclassified version that can be shared more widely.
- Committee members agreed on the importance of trying to quantify the online rhetoric into actual threat, but cautioned that actual numbers may not truly represent actual threat.
